

Daily Devotions for the Saints of God

“Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly.”
Colossians 3:16

INTRODUCTION

Dear saints of Trinity and OALC: grace, mercy, and peace are yours in our Lord Jesus Christ. What you have in your hands is the result of a reality and a conviction. The reality is that unless we are in the Word every day, we are exposed to the attacks of the devil, the world, and our flesh to take us away from our Savior. Many wonder why their children or family have wandered away and not stayed in the church. Often it is because Scripture was not part of the fabric of their daily lives, but only something they heard on Sunday. If we want to have strong, Christian families, if we desire our homes to be strongholds where evil has no place, if we seek to grow as Christians, home devotions are a must. Yet, it is my conviction that, while many are not opposed to doing home devotions, they do not know how. This booklet is meant to provide just such a resource.

You will find each page with a title telling you what week of the Church Year the devotions are to be used for and the theme of that week. The Scripture passages provided will continue the theme of the previous Sunday. All you have to do is look at your Sunday bulletin to determine which week in your booklet to turn to. The left half of the page is a structure for morning devotions. The right half of the page is a structure for evening devotions. There are many overlapping portions for morning and evening devotions: the Invocation, the Kyrie, the Catechism portion, etc. If there is a portion of the devotion that you do not have memorized, such as the Apostles' Creed, Luther's Morning and Evening Prayers, and the Nunc Dimittis, it is provided for you on the back cover.

Each Sunday, we will go through the assigned Catechism for each week and the hymns listed as part of your devotions are usually sung in the Divine Service the previous Sunday, so you will have a frame of reference. Even if you are not comfortable singing, I encourage you to give it a go. The Lord desires a joyful song, it doesn't have to be perfect.

Apart from this booklet, you will need a Bible and the Lutheran Service Book (LSB) Hymnal. The LSB will have the hymns for the devotions, as well as the catechism portions (starting on p. 321). This booklet can be used by families, couples, and single people alike. If this booklet is being used by families or married couples, the head of the house (the husband) should lead the devotions. It is expected that the head of the house will help answer any questions that those he leads may have and that all people reflect on the readings provided. If there are portions of Scripture that are confusing or unclear, seek out my help—that is my joy and responsibility to you.

Of course, the key to reaping the most fruit from this booklet is consistency. Make time in the morning before the day begins to do the morning devotion and do the evening devotion after dinner. While there are many things that can keep us busy, we must make time for what matters. The Word of God and our spiritual health certainly matter. If we can dedicate multiple hours to entertaining ourselves on screens, we ought to be able to dedicate 20 minutes to a devotion. We ought to pride ourselves on knowing what our Scriptures say better than anyone else, for we confess that in them is our Life.

The Lord will bless your efforts to be in His Word. Your faith will be nourished, the Lord will impart His Spirit, your perspective will be better, and your relationships will be healthier. You will be shielded by Scripture from the devil and sin that threatens to steal away your faith and you will grow as your mind, heart, and language is saturated by the Word. May the Word of Christ dwell in you richly!

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Silas Hasselbrook

THE MINOR FESTIVALS

When you observe the Minor Festivals throughout the Church Year, simply plug the Psalm, Scripture reading, and Hymn into the typical devotional template. For the Daily Catechism portion, use whatever is listed for the week on which the Minor Festival falls, or practice a portion of the Small Catechism that you could work on more.

BACK COVER RESOURCES

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting; Amen.

Luther's Morning Prayer

I thank you, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have kept me this night from all harm and danger; and I pray that You would keep me this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings in life may please You. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the wicked foe may have no power over me; Amen.

Luther's Evening Prayer

I thank you, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have graciously kept me this day; and I pray that You would forgive me all my sins where I have done wrong, and graciously keep me this night. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the wicked foe may have no power over me; Amen.

Nunc Dimittis

Lord, now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace according to Thy word, for mine eyes have seen Thy salvation, which Thou hast prepared before the face of all people, a light to lighten the Gentiles and the glory of Thy people Israel. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end; Amen.
